Following the meeting with Phillip Lovesey, of the Inland Drainage Board, provided a brief update on the progress re the restoration of the River Ouzel, upstream of the Ring Road.

“Most items are with CBC and we plan to assist when possible. We need to look at the cattle drink with CBC and Jon Balaam, that we could sort out in the meantime.

There are actually TWO cattle drinks on the stretch between the Ring Road and the Grove Lock.

Cattle drinks can cause serious problems by being significant sources of silt in the river.
