Civic Engagements

From the day of death until the day after the funeral, careful thought should be given to the type of events and activities the Town Mayor should host or attend. Lunches, dinners and receptions may not fit in with the mood of the nation and as a mark of respect may need to be cancelled or postponed.

Where school visits are scheduled it might be helpful for the Town Mayor to spend time with the children to talk about the events that are unfolding. This should not be pressed upon a Town Mayor who is not comfortable with taking on such a role.

Action Required	Authorised /Implemented By	Other Notes
To review the programme of engagements undertaken by the Town Mayor to ensure it is appropriate in a time of national mourning and that it sits comfortably with the national mood.	The Town Mayor in conjunction with the Town Clerk. Any decisions/changes to be implemented by the Democratic Services team.	Consider working with local faith groups to arrange some sort of service on the eve of the funeral.

Dress Code

If a full Council meeting falls during the period of mourning it might be felt appropriate for Councillors to wear a black tie or black arm band.

Action Required	Implemented By	Other Notes
A stock of black ties and black armbands will be held in and available from the Mayor's Office for use by the Councillors and officers following the death of a senior figure.	The stock to be issued and maintained in good order by the Democratic Services team.	At the time of the annual review of this protocol, consideration will be given to the number of items in stock, their condition and the need for cleaning, repair or replacement.

Proclamation (see also Flag Flying section during Proclamation)

In the event of the death of the Sovereign, a national Proclamation will usually be made on D+1 but this may be D+2. The national Proclamation is read at St. James' Palace at 11am and at the Royal Exchange in the City of London at noon. On the following day, the Proclamation will be read in Edinburgh, Cardiff and Hillsborough. Once those Proclamations have been made, it is appropriate for the Proclamation to be read at County, City, Borough, Town and Parish level.

The Council may wish to consider a local reading of the Proclamation to take place after the Bedfordshire County Proclamation, to be made by the High Sheriff with the Lord-Lieutenant alongside them (details of which will be provided through official channels). This means a local reading would most likely take place after 1400 hours on D+2.

Formatted: Font: Bold

In determining whether to hold a local reading and the format it should take, consideration to be given to:

- Who will read the Proclamation – this should be the Town Mayor, if available
- From where it will be read
- Arrangements to communicate with the public
- Who will be invited to be present
- Dress code
- Photography and/or live streaming
- Amplification
- Wording
- Whether to create an "order of service" or scroll of the Proclamation
- Whether musical accompaniment is possible to allow for singing the first verse of the national anthem.

Formatted: Bulleted + Level: 1 + Aligned at: 0.63 cm + Indent at: 1.27 cm

The wording of the Proclamation will be provided through official channels.

Formatted: Font: Not Bold

The flag should not be lowered to half-mast until completion of the local Proclamation, if held.

Due to the timescales involved, any Proclamation reading will need to be organised at very short notice and this may inevitably impact on what is possible and achievable.

Public Observance of Silence

When the death of a senior member of the Royal Family is to be marked by a Silence, an announcement will be made by Buckingham Palace. Consideration to be given to whether it would be appropriate for the Town Mayor to lead a Public Silence. Councillors to wear black ties/arm bands/rosettes. If not, the Silence will be observed at the White House by Town Council Members and staff, where this takes place during a working day.	The Town Mayor in conjunction with the Town Clerk.

Appendix A

Full details for on the correct way to fly flags at half mast is given on the website of the Flag Institute (www.flaginstitute.org).

It is important that the guidance given by the Flag Institute is adhered to strictly.

Half mast means the flag is flown two-thirds of the way up the flagpole with at least the height of the flag between the top of the flag and the top of the flagpole. Flags cannot be flown at half-mast on poles that are more than 45° from the vertical but a mourning cravat can be used instead.

When a flag is to be flown at half mast, it should first be raised all the way to the top of the mast, allowed to remain there for a second and then be lowered to the half mast position. When it is being lowered from the half mast, it should again be raised to the top of the mast for a second before being fully lowered.

Appendix B

The statement should begin with a suitable expression of sadness of the Town Council on hearing the announcement.

It might go on to state that flags will be flown at half mast.

If is an occasion when Books of Condolence will be opened, then reference could be made to that.

When a decision has been taken on the Council's programme of events and engagements, it might be stated that events are being cancelled as a mark of respect or that they will begin with a period of silence.

If in doubt, do not rush out a statement with commits the Town Council to action before that action has been discussed and has the necessary agreement from the political leadership.
